SMALL VERDICT

Twenty-five dollars and costs is all the damages the jury in Judge Lindsay's court gave to August Spillner against two Japanese quarrymen whose blasting operations kept him from obtaining steady tenants for his house on Quarry street. As the jury reported inability to agree when they first came on, the verdict is probably in the compromise or consolation class.

DEFICIENCY JUDGMENT

Judge Robinson makes an order of confirmation of sale by M. T. Simonson, commissioner, in the foreclosure case of Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association against Frank E. King and Louise McGrew.

The plaintiff corporation was the purchaser of the property for $1200. Expenses and taxes make $199.75 and the mortgage debt up to date of decree is $2244.97, which with interest of $15.44 to date of sale foots up altogether $2460.16. Deducting the $1200 there is a deficiency of $1260.16 for which judgment is given against Louise McGrew with recourse to Frank E. King if execution levied on her property do not satisfy the judgment.

PLANS OF PARADE

L. PETRIE TO BE MARSHAL—MAUI PRINCESS NOT CONFIRMED AS YET.

Since he may have to leave the islands on important business, Harry Von Holt will not be marshal of the great Floral Parade on Washington's Birthday.

L. Petrie, who has had former experience, and who was appointed deputy marshal for this year's celebration has been therefore advanced to the position of marshal.

This afternoon T. H. Petrie and Jack Dowsett will take a trip to Panahau to glance again over the grounds of the college to see whether or not there is room there for the review of the procession. It is believed that there is not sufficient maneuvering space for the cavalry and all the rest of the parade.

After Panahau, Kapiolani park will be visited and matter of the grounds for the wind-up will be thoroughly considered.

The matter of the Maui Princess is not quite settled. Yesterday The Star announced that Miss Cummings, who is attending school at the Priory, would be the belle for Maui. It appears, however, that last year the young lady's mother would not grant permission for her to take part, Bishop Restarick, under whose jurisdiction the affairs of the Priory come, is willing to allow Miss Cummings to participate providing her mother has no objection, so word has been sent to the mother on Maui and her verdict is awaited.

In the event of the chosen one not being allowed to grace the occasion, there are two or three other Maui maidens in the city who are available.

Hawaii has not yet been heard from in regard to a Princess.

The Agricultural College of Hawaii is one of the latest institutions to promise to have a float in the parade.

The Outrigger Club is preparing to put a canoe float in the show and the Red Men will have a splendid contribution in the way of a float, Indians in war paint and feathers.

Charlie Chillingworth is enthusiastic over the pa-u prospects. He has already secured fifty-five good pa-u riders. Mrs. Charles Chillingworth is lending her talent to the selection of costumes and the cutting of the goods.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon there will be a meeting of the general parade committee. It is expected then that there will be a report from the committee appointed to look up the proposition of a mardi gras celebration in the evening following the parade.

Members of that committee have interviewed merchants and found a general willingness on their part to decorate their stores, put up extra lights and to help in every way to make the gathering on certain streets, which will be kept clear of vehicles, a success and a monster masked or costumed merry-making wherein confetti and flowers may be thrown and much joy observed.

HIS HONOR GETS GIANT PETITION

Mrs. Anna Gertz wants Mayor Fern to straighten out the Territorial registrar's records. She wants him to "cleanse" them.

The lady, a widow, who has a dozen times or more been in the courts for "her rights," called on the City and County Mayor this morning with a monster petition to the effect that the record of the closing of a mortgage on what used to be her property was guilty of an interlineation which should make it invalid. The record is in an office of the Territory, but this did not keep the lady from seeing the Mayor. She said she had seen the Governor and that he would do nothing for her.

Some years ago foreclosure was had on a house and shoe-store of the widow, and because, as plaintiff says, the words "and with improvements" were interlineated in the record and did not appear in the papers as certified by a notary public, the whole business is wrong.

Her petition tells all her grievances. The Mayor handed the document to the City and County Attorney who has nothing to do with it, as far as he is aware.

TAG TRENT FOR TEST

CHARLIE COSTER, STABLEMAN.
WILL MANDAMUS CITY TREASURER TOMORROW.

Charlie Coster will celebrate Tag-day, tomorrow, by tagging City and County Treasurer Trent.

Coster is foreman of the Fourth District stables, under City and County government, having been appointed to his position by the roads committee of the Board of Supervisors, or the majority thereof which is sometimes referred to as the Solid Six.

Coster has faithfully performed his duties and wants his money. So do three or four hundred other men of the road department want their money, but Trent refused. It will be remembered, to cash warrants for the pay of road men on the ground that their employment and wages were in dispute.

So, and this is the materialization of the much talked of test cast. Coster has been made plaintiff or prosecutor and his name appears on papers which will tomorrow morning be filed in the Supreme Court, and Treasurer Trent will be tagged with an alternative writ, requiring that he deliver the cash as called for by Auditor Bicknell's warrant, or that he go into court to show cause why he refuses to hand over the money.

Trent, that the test may be fulfilled, will go into court.

The papers were to have been filed today, but it was only this morning that Mayor Fern put his certificate to certain ordinances and a resolution and these documents were necessary to the preparation of the case.

MORE PEACE FLEET COMING TO HAWAII

troil and there will be numerous monsters from the Atlantic parading the Pacific before the year is far gone. An Army officer is not supposed to know much about the Navy, but in the new order of things, the great game of keeping the Pacific in a condition implied by the name, peaceful, it is not amiss for an officer of the Army to have an opinion as to what is to be done, especially when that opinion is based on something akin to knowledge, as near akin to knowledge as anything can be before the actual occurrence of an event. I have never before been to Hawaii, but I have not long ago come from a place where they know more about Hawaiian affairs than you know here and where world conditions are familiarly considered and dealt with.

"You may take it as a prophecy, though I know it to be more, and I think it will interest the people here, who were so enthusiastic over the visits of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets, to know that there will be more American fleets coming here soon.

"President Roosevelt does not leave the Presidency for a month yet and you must not be surprised if you hear before that time of several first class battleships being ordered to hit the trail just gone over by the Big Sixteen, via Suez, for the Pacific. The Maine, Idaho, Mississippi and New Hampshire, battleships, and the armored cruisers Montana and North Carolina are the boats we may see here in a few months. The sixteen battleships which circled the globe are likely to contribute a division of four vessels to the Pacific, too.

"It is planned, on completion of these big fellows, to send the first class battleships South Carolina, Michigan, Delaware and North Dakota to this ocean on a test trip around the world. The Pacific fleet is at any time likely to be ordered back this way. So Oahu is likely to get much of the Navy as well as a lot of the Army from now on."
